

Richard Hanson's Give My Regards to Broadway Fall 2019 Theatre Tour

Oct 8 – 14 or Oct 15 - 21

Take your seat for four of Broadway's best new shows, including...

Set in Montmartre Quarter of Paris, France at the turn of the century, a world of indulgent beauty and unparalleled extravagance, of bohemians and aristocrats, of boulevardiers and mademoiselles, Moulin Rouge! The Musical brings Baz Luhrman's revolutionary film to life on stage in a theatrical celebration of Truth, Beauty, Freedom and Love! In his New York Times review, Ben Brantley called the show "smart, shameless and extravagantly entertaining."

Harper Lee's Pulitzer prize-winning American classic To Kill a Mockingbird comes to Broadway in a new adaptation by Aaron Sorkin directed by Bartlett Sher and starring Jeff Daniels as Atticus Finch. Published during the Civil Rights movement, the novel struck a nerve in this country. 58 years later, To Kill A Mockingbird is not only still relevant, it's the hottest ticket on Broadway.

Broadway's "To Kill a Mockingbird is here and Jeff Daniels soars as Atticus Finch." Peter Marks, The Washington Post

Hadestown, a pulsing, poetic contemporary riff on an ancient Greek myth, won the 2019 Tony Award for Best Musical. A love story for today and always, Hadestown is based on a 2010 folk opera concept album by singer-songwriter Anais Mitchell, who won the 2019 Tony for Best Score. Hadestown is a hell-raising journey to the underworld and back pitting industry against nature, doubt against faith and fear against love. Hadestown is the talk of the town this year winning a total of eight Tony Awards.

2019 Tony Award® winner Santino Fontana delivers "one of the best performances ever seen on a musical stage" (Rolling Stone) in the show critics are calling "the most uproariously funny new musical comedy to hit Broadway in years!" (The Hollywood Reporter). This New York Times Critic's Pick tells the story of an out-of-work actor willing to do anything for a job. When he disguises himself as an outspoken actress named Dorothy Michaels, he defies all odds to become a Broadway sensation and learns that the hardest part of show business isn't getting to the top... it's keeping up the act.

Come on along and listen to the Lullaby of Broadway!

Stay 6 nights at the historic Warwick Hotel, built in 1926 by William Randolph Hearst for the love of his life, actress Marion Davies.

The hotel is steps away from Rockefeller Plaza, Central Park, The Museum of Modern Art, Broadway theatres and Fifth Avenue shopping. The perfect location...

Visit classic New York landmarks...

Take in the view from the Observation Deck at the Empire State Building, New York's iconic 102 story Art Deco skyscraper, now the 5th tallest in the U.S. and featured in films such as King Kong, An Affair To Remember, Sleepless in Seattle and more.

Enjoy an elegant lunch in the original Morgan family dining room, and learn about J. P. Morgan, one of the most colorful figures in New York's history at the opulent Pierpont Morgan Library, widely recognized as one of the finest treasure troves of priceless works from the realms of art, literature, music and history including the Gutenberg Bible, musical manuscripts of Mozart, Chopin and Brahms, a letter from Elizabeth I and more.

Explore New York's newest gathering places...

Discover Hudson Yards - New York's newest development featuring unique public art spaces and innovative engineering and design concepts. Experience the Vessel created by Thomas Heatherwick, a monument meant to be climbed and explored. Comprised of 154 intricately interconnecting flights of stairs and 80 landings, the centerpiece will literally lift up the public. This larger-than-life art piece will be New York City's next public landmark.

Stroll through The High Line, a 1.45-mile-long elevated linear park, greenway and rail trail created on a former New York Central Railroad spur on the west side of Manhattan, featuring innovative public art and gardens. Enjoy a French inspired lunch at Pastis in the trendy Meatpacking District, and complete the afternoon with a visit to the nearby Whitney Museum of American Art.
